Effective Notetaking Dec 14 2020 You can predict how well a student will do simply on the basis of their use of effective study strategies. This book is for college students who are serious about being successful in study, and teachers who want to know how best to help their students learn. Being a successful student is far more about being a smart user of effective strategies than about being 'smart'. Research has shown it is possible to predict how well a student will do simply on the basis of their use of study strategies. This workbook looks at the most important group of study strategies - how to take notes (with advice on how to read a textbook and how to prepare for a lecture). You'll be shown how to: * format your notes * use headings and highlighting * how to write different types of text summaries and pictorial ones, including concept maps and mind maps (you'll find out the difference, and the pros and cons of each) * ask the right questions * make the right connections * review your notes * evaluate text to work out which strategy is appropriate. There's advice on individual differences and learning styles, and on how to choose the strategies that are right for both you and the situation. Using effective notetaking strategies will help you remember what you read. It will help you understand more, and set you on the road to becoming an expert (or at least getting good grades!). Successful studying isn't about hours put in, it's about spending your time wisely. You want to study smarter not harder. As always with the Mempowered books, this thorough (and fully referenced) workbook doesn't re-hash the same tired advice that's been peddled for so long. Rather, Effective Notetaking builds on the latest cognitive and educational research to help you study for success. This 3rd edition has advance organizers and multi-choice review questions for each chapter, plus some additional material on multimedia learning, and taking notes in lectures. Keywords: best study strategies for college students, how to improve note taking skills, study skills, college study, taking notes

Financial Reporting Oct 31 2019 Loftus, Financial Reporting builds on the strengths of Loftus, Understanding Australian Accounting Standards and Leo, Company Accounting, bringing the strongest elements of those two respected titles into one combined volume. This 35 chapter text is designed to cover all of the 2nd and 3rd year financial accounting topics typically taught across two units, including accounting regulation, the conceptual framework, applying accounting standards, disclosures and group accounting. It explains accounting principles and practice to students in a clear, understandable way and provides both a conceptual insight as well as a practical application of the various accounting standards. The author team is comprised of a group of academics who are actively teaching in this area incl. Janice Loftus (Uni of Adelaide), Noel Boys (Melb), Belinda Luke (QUT), Sorin Daniliuc (ANU), Hong Ang (Deakin) and Karen Byrnes (USQ). The authors have brought their collective teaching insights to bear on the learning design of the text and accompanying online course the result of which is a contemporary teaching and learning package that will engage and empower students to study independently and achieve greater success in these challenging units.
