House of Cards Sep 13 2021 Hired as a tutor for a madwoman's son, an American expatriate scraps to stay alive A washed-up heavyweight with dreams of becoming a writer, Reno Davis is down to his last franc when he lands a job as a bouncer at a sprawling Paris discotheque. His first night, he saves a slumming beauty from a pair of café toughs, and she rewards him with a well-paid job tutoring her darling son. But what she really wants is a bodyguard to keep her precious baby safe from terrors real and imagined. Reno's new boss is a mental case, paranoid and delusional, whose lovers have a bad habit of dying violent deaths. But in this case, her paranoia may be justified. Protecting the boy draws Reno into an international conspiracy that stretches from Paris to Rome to the killing fields of northern Algeria. When the bullets start to fly, this ex-fighter begins to fear that he may be punching above his weight.

Cultures -- contre-cultures Jun 29 2020 On aura beau multiplier les études de toutes sortes, elles manqueront toutes leur objet si elles ne tiennent pas compte de ce qui nous semble désormais évident, que le surréalisme n'est pas seulement un mouvement littéraire, artistique, philosophique, mais aussi et surtout un phénomène culturel propre à l'occident. On en connaît bien les étapes : le refus (latent) au lendemain de la première guerre mondiale de tout ce qui avait conduit au grand carnage; la découverte, grâce à Freud, de ce que Breton allait nommer l'"automatisme psychique pur" qui devait non seulement nettoyer les écuries littéraires, mais aussi remettre la raison et la logique sur leurs pieds ; puis la réorientation, en 1930, vers la résolution et le dépassement des antinomies ; dans le même temps, l'élaboration d'un programme visant à concilier Marx et Rimbaud, à "transformer le monde" et à "changer la vie" ; enfin, dès avant la seconde guerre mondiale, la recherche d'un mythe nouveau, susceptible de galvaniser les énergies, de redonner de l'espérance en des temps gagnés par les idéologies totalitaires. Le dossier central de ce volume aborde les rapports du surréalisme avec la pensée dite "primitive ", la culture populaire, la tradition ésotérique, le chamanisme, la culture classique. On y verra comment, se dressant contre les forces contraignantes du passé, il est parvenu à tracer les lignes essentielles d'une contre-culture, à l'œuvre dans le présent.

WTF is Tarot? Jul 23 2022 Young Blood, Old Magic: A No-Nonsense Approach to the Ancient Art of Reading Tarot You do not need to learn the tarot because you already know it. It is from this radical jumping off point that WTF Is Tarot breaks down the ancient art of cartomancy. This fresh, accessible and sometimes cheeky guide sheds a holistic light on how to read tarot, from the foundation of magic itself to understanding those tricky court cards to offering readings to others. In WTF Is Tarot, author and tarot reader Bakara Wintner unpacks the magic of the Major and Minor Arcana with shamanic wisdom and girl boss wit, illuminating their meaning with thoughtful anecdotes and analogies that reveal how deeply rooted these symbols already are in our everyday lives: we can feel the Moon in a howling barefoot run through Prospect Park, accept the grace of Temperance in falling in love or a divine intervention, “ghost the haters” with the Six of Swords, or identify when it’s time to let go of an ex with the Hanged Man. WTF is Tarot offers far more than a refreshingly candid tutorial on card reading. Bakara goes on to investigate the magic of crystal healing, chakras, meditation and other magical practices. This young witch offers not just a guide, but an invitation for even the most mundane Muggles to welcome magic into their lives, and for experienced wizards to rediscover it once again.

Oubli interdit Jan 05 2021 Un meurtre sordide, un enlèvement, plusieurs disparitions... La police se lance dans une vaste enquête qui aboutira à de nombreuses révélations ! ?Peu de temps après les funérailles du vieil Adrien Ragnotti, le corps de son fils Jacques est retrouvé sur une plage, une croix gammée gravée au fer rouge dans le dos. Sur le registre de condoléances, on lira la même phrase que celle écrite lors de l'enterrement de son père : Souviens-toi du 6 juin. Alors que la police peine à trouver une piste, la sœur et les deux autres frères de Jacques disparaissent tour à tour. L'enquête pour meurtre puis pour enlèvement conduira les flics de l'Alsace au Roussillon en passant par Cortona, un village toscan. Mais la fratrie reste introuvable. En revanche, les souvenirs inaltérables et douloureux qu'a laissés une époque troublée et somme toute assez récente de notre Histoire refont surface et ravivent les sentiments les plus noirs et les plus violents. Rythme effréné et diabolique pour une affaire dont les ramifications sont beaucoup plus complexes et sordides qu'il n'y paraît. Pierre Brocchi est l'auteur de précédents polars dont Aucun répit, paru aux éditions Lucien Souny en 2018. Découvrez une enquête haletante au travers de la France et de l'Italie, sur les traces d'anciennes mémoires rescapées des camps de concentration. Un roman noir à lire au plus vite. CE QU'EN PENSE LA CRITIQUE Un récit poignant. Un sans-faute, Bravo ! À découvrir absolument.- Beatrice258, Babelio Un très bon roman qui nous tient en haleine jusqu'au bout. On se pose des questions jusqu'à la fin, on a hâte de savoir comment ça va se terminer et au final, on n'est pas déçu par ce roman. Décidément, j'aime les livres des éditions Lucien Souny ! - MissCode, Babelio À PROPOS DE L'AUTEUR Depuis qu'il a raccroché les baskets - il était prof d'EPS, Pierre Brocchi écrit. Il a signé Aucun Répit (2018) aux éditions Lucien Souny. Avec Oubli interdit, il tenait à évoquer la tragédie qui s'est déroulée dans le camp de Saint-Cyprien en 1940 où le gouvernement français y a parqué des milliers de réfugiés. L'auteur construit un scénario sur un rythme effréné et diabolique pour une affaire dont les ramifications sont beaucoup plus complexes et sordides qu'il n'y paraît. Pierre Brocchi est originaire d'Antibes, ville où il réside encore aujourd'hui.

Portrait of a Lady Jun 10 2021 The legendary Renaissance man and amateur sleuth is back in this exciting follow-up to The Queen's Gambit. As court engineer to the Duke of Milan, Leonardo da Vinci turns his superior mind to a variety of pursuits-from painting to solving the occasional murder. After the deaths of two female servants, Leonardo asks his apprentice, Dino, to go undercover disguised as a woman in the service of the Duke's ward, Contessa Caterina. This should be easy enough, given that "Dino" is in reality Delfina, a young woman masquerading as a boy to serve as Leonardo's apprentice. Delfina is soon torn between her loyalty to Leonardo and her growing feelings for Gregorio, the handsome captain of the Duke's guard. But if what the Contessa's tarot cards foretold is correct, Delfina might be destined to lose her heart...and perhaps her life.

Salvation Goods and Religious Markets Feb 24 2020 The idea that religion has to succeed in a «market», selling «salvation goods», has proved to be extremely attractive to scholars in sociology and the study of religion. Max Weber used the term «salvation good» to compare different religious traditions. Pierre Bourdieu employed the term in order to analyze «religious economy». And recently, an American group of researchers advocating «rational choice of religion» put the theme at the forefront of current debates. This book - the fruit of an International Congress in Lausanne in April 2005 - brings together leading specialists in the fields of sociology and the study of religion who discuss the terms «salvation goods» (or religious goods) and «religious market». The authors test the applicability of these concepts by using specific examples and they either deliberately advocate or criticize Weberian, Bourdieusian or rational-choice perspectives.

À corps et à cris Apr 08 2021 Cinq nouvelles pour dire les heurts et malheurs qui frappent au hasard, sans crier gare. Cinq histoires de corps et de cris pour raconter des situations de vie, à la fois banales et singulières où les personnages chutent et se relèvent. Des tranches d'humanité saisies sur le vif, surgies de l'ordinaire et absorbées par le temps qui passe.

Ces paroles qui nous sauvent Oct 22 2019 Ce livre, préfacé par le psychosociologue Jacques Salomé, est le fruit de trente ans d'expérience personnelle et d'enseignement de la puissance créatrice de la parole. Utiliser la parole comme outil de transformation est indispensable à l'évolution positive de l'humanité et pour aller vers un monde meilleur. Ce livre conçu comme un cahier d'exercices permet de faire le bilan de ses acquis, de ses manques. Il permet de mettre en mots et en pratique la force de la parole, afin de changer sa vie et de combler toutes ses aspirations.

The Beribboned Bomb Sep 20 2019 Surrealism was ostensibly directed at the emancipation of the human spirit, but it represented only male aspirations and fantasies until a number of women artists began to redefine its agenda in the later 1930s. The Beribboned Bomb: The Image of Woman in Male Surrealist Art addresses the former, using a "thick description" of the historically specific circumstances which required the male Surrealists to manufacture a sexual reputation of narcissism and misogyny. These circumstances were determined by "hegemonic masculinity," an ideological construct which had little to do with individual masculinities. In male Surrealism, the "beribboned bomb" signified something both attractive and volatile, a specific instance of the Surrealist principle of convulsive beauty. In hegemonic masculinity, similar devices served as metaphors of the sexuality all men were supposed to possess. The intersection of these two axes produced an imagery of unrepentant violence.

Ecstatic Encounters Aug 20 2019 "Reality does not comply with our narrations of it. And that is most certainly the case with the narrations produced in academia. An anthropologist in Bahia, Brazil, fears to become possessed by the spirits he had come to study; falls madly in love with an 'informant'; finds himself baffled by the sayings of a clairvoyant; and has to come to grips with the murder of one of his best friends. Unsettling events that do not belong to the orderly world of scientific research, yet leave their imprint on the way the anthropologist comes to understand the world. Reflecting on his long research experience with the spirit possession cult Candomblãe, the author shows, in a probing manner, how definitions of reality always require the exclusion of certain perceptions, experiences and insights. And yet, this 'rest-of-what-is' turns out to be an inexhaustible source of amazement, seduction and renewal." --P [4] of cover.

The Second Sound Sep 01 2020 Gathering anonymous testimonies from artists of different backgrounds into a single stream of (often contrary) opinions, the book addresses discrimination as a paradigm of otherness, the possibility of gendered music and sound art, and how sound artists and musicians navigate the field. The Second Sound raises questions such as: How do life circumstances find their way into music and sound art? How does music reflect historical and social structures? What does discrimination do, and how can we navigate around it? Is the under-representation of women and LGBTQ people in the field a symptom or a cause? Is art itself gendered? And can it reflect the gender of its maker? Is a different way of listening needed to more accurately understand those voices from outside the historical canon? Although this book raises more questions than it answers, it came to be a pledge for embracing artistic differences, for the richness of contextual listening, and for honesty in the expression of concerns and doubts. The responses seem to suggest that understanding differences by theme and not as predetermination is a way to provide freedom in a field of seemingly abstract art.
