30 Nights with Prophet Muhammad Dec 25 2021 Inspire your child this ramadan with the amazing story of the Noble prophet Are you looking for a book for your child to learn Islam this ramadan? Do you want a book that is detailed yet simple and easy for children to understand and written in a way that's engaging for children? Follow the life of the Prophet ﷺ in his first 13 years in Mecca after he was chosen to call the people to Allah, the challenges he faced, the allies he made, the plots of his enemies and how Allah granted him Victory. This book is broken down into 30 chapters that can be read daily in the blessed month of Ramadan. Discover how the Prophet strove hard to call the people to Allah, how his people who had loved and trusted him became his enemies. How Islam slowly but surely was growing despite the trials and persecution the believers were enduring at the hands of the idols worshippers. It tells the stories of the noble companions and their strong character and sacrifices, like Hamza who did not want to be a Muslim until his honour was challenged, Abubakr and how came to be known as As-Siddiq (the truthful), how Bilaal endured pain and suffering because he believed in Allah. Then there was Najaashi, the Christian king whose faith was tested when he came to hear about Islam. See how the times changed for the believers and their enemies, one winning today and the other winning the next. And when the Prophet ﷺ and his companions were treated worse than ever, and there was no sign of hope, and the Arabs had chosen to reject Islam, and it looked as if the enemies of Islam were close to destroying it, then came the noble, honourable and chosen Ansars (The Helpers), through whom Allah turned the tide. This is an amazing read for children or anyone interested in learning Islam. Make the most for your child this Ramadan with this beautiful Islamic story.

No god but God (Updated Edition) Jun 06 2020 A fascinating, accessible introduction to Islam from the #1 New York Times bestselling author of Zealot and host of Believer FINALIST FOR THE GUARDIAN FIRST BOOK AWARD In No god but God, internationally acclaimed scholar Reza Aslan explains Islam—the origins and evolution of the faith—in all its beauty and complexity. This updated edition addresses the events of the past decade, analyzing how they have influenced Islam's position in modern culture. Aslan explores what the popular demonstrations pushing for democracy in the Middle East mean for the future of Islam in the region, how the Internet and social media have affected Islam's evolution, and how the war on terror has altered the geopolitical balance of power in the Middle East. He also provides an update on the contemporary Muslim women's movement, a discussion of the controversy over veiling in Europe, an in-depth history of Jihadism, and a look at how Muslims living in North America and Europe are changing the face of Islam. Timely and persuasive, No god but God is an elegantly written account that explains this magnificent yet misunderstood faith. Praise for No god but God "Grippingly narrated and thoughtfully examined . . . a literate, accessible introduction to Islam."—The New York Times "[Reza] Aslan offers an invaluable introduction to the forces that have shaped Islam [in this] eloquent, erudite paean to Islam in all of its complicated glory."—Los Angeles Times Book Review "Wise and passionate . . . an incisive, scholarly primer in Muslim history and an engaging personal exploration."—The New York Times Book Review "Acutely perceptive . . . For many troubled Muslims, this book will feel like a revelation, an opening up of knowledge too long buried."—The Independent (U.K.) "Thoroughly engaging and excellently written . . . While [Aslan] might claim to be a mere scholar of the Islamic Reformation, he is also one of its most articulate advocates."—The Oregonian

Who is Allah? Islamic Book for Children Nov 23 2021 This book outlines the belief about our creator "Allah" as mentioned in the Holy Quran. I hope that reading this book will deepen our relationship with Allah. I want families to read that book daily at home with children, not only to increase their belief in Allah but also to encourage children to become true lovers of Allah and to follow His instructions in daily routine life. Correct belief and faith can be introduced in our young children through the regular teachings of our religion. This book can be used as a daily bedtime storybook to engage children with Allah.

Sex and Sex Education Jul 28 2019 What are children being taught about sex? What are they learning from peers, television, movies, magazines, computer games, pop music, popular culture? Most parents are rightly alarmed by the increasingly controversial nature of the information being fed to children and how age-appropriate it actually is. This publication makes it easy for parents to understand and broach the sensitive topic of sex education. Originally forming chapter thirteen of Parent-Child Relations: A Guide to Raising Children, it charts a way forward, helping parents to educate their children in a manner they feel appropriate and which maintains a sense of the sacred. The authors use a holistic approach to include what morality requires of humanity in this regard, and also focus on the issues of healthy relationships, responsibility, emotional wellbeing, and good physical health. The publication is intended to give parents practical advice, using clear and precise information, to address some of the most common issues parents are likely to encounter and questions they are likely to face.

Getting to Know & Love Islam Apr 28 2022 The love of Allah is already instilled in our children's hearts, and it is our duty as parents to help nurture and sustain that love. Basic Fiqh Apr 16 2021 All Praise be to Allah Ta'ala, The Master of the worlds. May Allah Ta'ala's special blessings, mercies and salawaat descend upon our beloved master Sayyidina, Rasulullah PBUH forever and ever. The Basic 'ilm (knowledge of Deen) is the weapon of every believer. Without knowing what is right from wrong, man will never be able to save himself from evil and sin. Without the knowledge of Deen, man is a vulnerable victim of shaytaan. The primary maktab system is designed to equip the children of the Ummah, with the basic knowledge of Deen, which will carry them along for the rest of their lives in the obedience of Allah Ta'ala and in following the sunnah of Rasulullah PBUH. This book titled 'Basic Fiqh' is designed to teach little children the basic Islamic laws according to the teachings and the Fiqh of Hadhrat Imaam Abu Hanifah RA. An attempt has been made to cover the basic but very important aspects of Fiqh in this little booklet (Insha Allah). Though many books of Fiqh are currently available, the intention in preparing this little booklet was to present some basic rules of fundamental importance making it easier for children to learn. The Ta'limi Board (KZN) has officially introduced this booklet into the maktab curriculum. Part One of this book is taught in Grade 6 and Part two in Grade 7. May Allah Ta'ala accept this little publication and make it a means of attaining His pleasure and may He make this book a means of great benefit for the Ummah. Aameen. Note: All Masael is related to Hanafi Madhahab

Inspiring Islamic Stories for Boys and Girls Volume 1 Feb 01 2020 Inspirational, simple Islamic Stories and authentic Islamic Facts for Kids The Book "Inspiring Islamic Stories" is not like other Islamic Books for Kids! It contains three stories; one of them is the most inspiring and unforgettable story of all - Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings of Allah be upon him). This Islamic bedtime book for Toddlers is filled with good Islamic morals and manners, teaching your child age three and above about Allah and to understand the importance of good and bad actions. It has been created in recognition of the need for books that tell real, authentic Islamic stories for children. Most of the Islamic children's books available today lack authenticity or are written in a complicated language for young Muslims to understand. "Inspiring Islamic Stories" is written in a way that even very young kids can easily understand. The author made these stories as authentic as possible by taking stories and information from the Quran, Tafseer Ibn Katheer, Bukhari, Muslim, and other authentic Hadith books and simplifying the language and adding context children can understand, without changing the intended meaning. This simple language results from an interactive reading process between the author and her children. If you are looking for a good Islamic children's book with inspirational, simple stories for kids 2-10, this colorful picture book is a great choice. Don't be surprised if it quickly becomes one of their favorite books they ask to read again and again. Editorial Reviews: "I thought this book was enlightening and entertaining. Also, I think there are many similarities across religions with respect to their morals and values for a life well spent. I cannot say whether the book might be confusing for very small children from different faiths, but I think it would be great for Islam children of various ages and for older children from other faiths." -Dr. Jay "[The] idea would have been to buy the book.. brand it to MC and give it away free. But you will make more money selling it it seems. Jzk."-Head Admin of Muslim Central whose co-director is Mufti Ismail Menk (Zimbabwe) "And as a children's book author myself, I like to see what 'new' books are out there. This book is VERY nicely illustrated (calming color scheme; enchanting overall) and evenly paced. It can be hard to write for a very young audience, especially about religions, but this book gets it right. In addition, I would also recommend this book for older non-Muslim children and teens, who simply want to learn more about Islam. Well done!" -Christy Burbidge, Author, Copy Editor, MSW (Simmons University) and PhD in Expressive Therapies (Lesley University) "The last story about the gardens of Sheba was by far the best and illustrated wonderfully."-Nikki Lewen, 5 Stars Award winning American Author, who was featured at the National John Steinbeck Center About the Author Julia Hanke was born and raised in Germany. She converted to Islam at the age of 17 and took the name Hafsa to have a Muslim identity. Hafsa studied Education and Islamic Sciences at a famous German University and achieved her Bachelor's degree. At the moment, she is homeschooling her three children. Note that the quotes from the Koran and Hadith are illustrated in more than ten unique Illustrations.

My First Book on Hadith Jun 30 2022 As parents, we must raise our children in the Islamic Faith. This requires us to introduce our children to our beloved Prophet Muhammad PBUH, the role model that Allah sent down for us to emulate and follow, so that we will succeed in this world and the next. He has the best manners and character, and we should learn from him and love him. But simply loving our Prophet is not enough. We must actually live the lifestyle that our beloved Prophet teaches us. ? My First Book on Hadith for Kids ? introduces Prophet Muhammad PBUH and his teachings in an easy, fun, and educational way so our kids develop and are instilled with love for our Prophet and learn to live the way he teaches us to live. This book shares various Hadiths of our Prophet, ranging from a Hadith on good manners and remembering Allah to a Hadith on the etiquette of eating, sleeping, and hygiene. Every concept this book teaches contains colorful images to help your child understand and appreciate what they need to learn!

A Concise Children's Encyclopedia of Islam Jan 26 2022

Meeting the Challenge of Parenting in the West Aug 28 2019 As a minority group in North America Muslims are preoccupied with how to preserve their Islamic identity in their children. With schools playing no role in instilling ethical norms and values in children it becomes the responsibility of the family to undertake that role. The book is an excellent guide on how to take on that role in a holistic Islamic tarbiyyah.

The Child in Islam Jun 18 2021 This book is a mothers' book—not that it can't be read by fathers as well—the outgrowth of a mothers' study group which met in Kuwait before the Gulf War, focused on rearing children in an Islamic way. The mothers were mostly American and British converts to Islam, although in cosmopolitan Kuwait there were women from many other backgrounds. The group was an offshoot of meetings for English-speaking Muslim women, held weekly in the home of Sister Zainab Ashry in Kuwait for more than ten years prior to the Gulf War. From their knowledge of Islam, the women involved wanted to study the implications of their faith on their child-rearing practices. The first step was to collect information—any Qur'anic verse or hadith—that a participant found relevant. Other information was collected from such knowledgeable people and books as were available. Monthly discussions were organized on different topics. Since the war, some of the participating sisters have returned to Kuwait, but many of our group are now scattered all over the world. All the notes and papers collected by the study group were in my home in Kuwait when the invasion occurred; fortunately my husband was able to salvage them and bring them here to our new home in the States. I felt an obligation to compile this collected information to share with other Muslims, especially converts like myself. My deepest thanks must go to my husband, whose support and cooperation gave me the means to carry out this task. This book begins with the birth of a child to Muslim parents, and the traditional Islamic response to the birth, following the example of Prophet Muhammad (S). Very few specific actions are defined, and these mostly relate to practices at the time of birth. All of these fall into the category of sunnah (following the Prophet's example or what he approved of in others), and though highly recommended, they are not fard (obligatory) actions. Aside from these few simple practices carried out when a baby comes into the world, Islam has no ceremonies devoted exclusively to children—no first communion, no coming-of-age celebrations. Children are not segregated into a special world separate from that of adults; they are members of families in the great, embracing cycle of human life. The family supports them when they are young; they support the family in their productive years, and in old age they are again supported by the family. They grow and develop gradually in a system that encourages growth and learning, but places little emphasis on milestones and anniversaries. A large portion of this book is given to defining relationships from the Qur'an and hadith. To understand the significance of the child in Muslim society, it is necessary to recognize the total number and value of his or her relationships within it, which are different from the relationships defined by other societies. Chapter 1 includes some of the traditions of the Prophet Muhammad that apply to the newborn. Chapter 2 describes the nature of the child's relationship with Allah and the spiritual world, with some suggestions for encouraging spiritual awareness. Chapter 3 contains Qur'anic verses and ahadith relevant to the child's relationship with his or her parents. In light of these definitions, and with reference to the Islamic teachings concerning morals, manners, and the purpose of life, an attempt is made in chapters 4, 5, and 6 to present an organized structure dealing with the practical how-to of rearing a child in an Islamic way, from a parent's viewpoint. Chapters Introduction ix 7 and 8 progressively broaden out the child's world by adding brothers and sisters, extended family, and community relationships. The practical suggestions for improving relationships among adult family members, in order to pave the way for improving the child's relations with his or her extended family, are an important aspect of chapter 8. The only relationship which really changes for the child as he or she grows up is that of accountability to Allah, since no child is accountable for his or her actions before reaching the age of understanding. All other relationships develop and deepen as the child grows but remain basically the same, for the general commands to honor parents, show respect to elders, be gentle with younger ones, and honor family ties continue for a Muslim throughout his or her life. I pray to Allah that this book may bring only good to mothers and their children, and that He protect them from any mistakes or misunderstandings. I have done my best to prepare the material contained within it in a suitable manner and hope to see other literature published on this important subject, expanding and enriching it. While I alone am responsible for the contents, I am deeply indebted to the many sisters who helped collect references and discussed the practical implications of our findings. I have no list to prompt me and consequently may have unwittingly forgotten some names, but I well remember Terry, Lianna, Salma, Noura, Mia, Khadijah, Sandra, Hicleir, Debbie, Sara, Maryam, Aneesah, Dianne, Karen, Kauthar and Nawal from Kuwait, all of us working together on this project. My friend Daaiyah Saleem in Ohio has also been very helpful, offering many suggestions for improvement and clarification as she aided in proofreading. My sister-in-law Ghada, of course, has helped along the way. In the course of preparing this book for publication, sister Zeba Siddiqui was chosen by the publisher to edit the text. I have known Zeba, a mother of four and a grandmother, and author of several excellent children's books as well as the THE CHILD IN ISLAM Parent's Manual: A Guide for Muslim Parents Living in North America, for several years. When I heard she had taken on this task, I asked her to add anything she felt was missing, from her years of experience and knowledge of the subject. She has supplied all of the hadith reference numbers in the text, in itself an enormous task. In addition to editing, she has filled out and amplified several topics, checking and adding material where needed. The sections on the Hereafter, tahara, respect for religion, and hospitality are prepared and written by her. It was only fair therefore that her name should appear on the title page of this book in recognition of her valuable contribution. I am deeply grateful to her for her help and input. I also need to thank my children, who suffered through my learning experience and projects for self-improvement in parenting skills, and my mother, whose life-long interest in the growth and development of children helped me understand the importance of the matter and the need for a book such as this. A final note, to the book's non-Muslim readers: I have chosen to use the word Allah throughout the book instead of the word God. The words are interchangeable in English for Muslims, but all of the women involved in this project have the habit, indeed, they have the love of referring to God, the God of Abraham, Moses, Jesus, and Muhammad, by His Arabic name, Allah.

Story of Prophet Hazrat Idris (AS) Mar 28 2022 This Islamic Book for Children outlines the brief story of Hazrat Idris (AS) as mentioned in Holy Quran, Hadith, and Tafseer. Hazrat Idris (Alayhe Salam) (AS) was born in Babylon, a city in present-day Iraq. When he was born, Hazrat Adam (AS) still had 308 years of his life to live. Hazrat Idris (AS) was the first man to use the pen as well as being one of the first man to observe the movement of the stars and set out scientific weights and measures. Idris was made prophet at the age of around 40 years, and lived during a time when people had begun to worship fire.

Islamic Book for Children - Social Skills in Islam - According to the Quran and Sunnah (with Activities) Mar 16 2021 Help Your Child Learn Anger Management and Social Skills for a Lifetime. Don't you HATE getting angry at your children and yelling at them or doing things out of anger, that you regret later on? This book will help you achieve what you dream of: it will help you to control your own emotions and teach children to recognize angry feelings and react to them safely, so they can be nice to themselves and others. While some children instinctively know how to regulate their emotions, many others lack the skills they need to deal with anger in a healthy way. This warm, engaging book helps children ages 5-14 develop strong skills for managing their anger through fun activities. From identifying their feelings and challenging negative thinking patterns to practicing healthy coping skills when angry feelings arise, kids will learn to feel calmer and more in control--and to form better relationships with family and friends and ease problems at school. Through interactive activities and stories, children learn how to control their anger in an Islamic way. It is an innovative, interactive book that empowers kids to understand which consequences their choices can have. Here's what you'll discover in the Social Skills in Islam book: - 4 ANGER MANAGEMENT STRATEGIES FROM THE SUNNAH which every Muslim should know - 13 AWESOME ACTIVITIES that help kids develop these important skills. - 4 exciting and unforgettable stories that let children discover what anger is, how it feels, how to look out for it, and more. The stories also help kids to reflect on the skills learned. This positive, authentic Islamic book for Children will help your kid calm down, cope, and cool a hot temper with skills that will last them a lifetime. Stop angry feelings in their tracks! Who knew anger management for kids could be so enjoyable? Don't miss out on this secret treasure! Grab a copy for your relatives and friends and share the joy! Editorial Reviews: "Initially I did not think I needed this book, but by the time I finished reading it, I realized that this book is a must-read for all parents with young children. We don't realize that we need to train our children in bad habits such as anger, it's something left for adults. But if you can train the young child before they get used to using anger as a way of showing their feelings, you're making yours and their lives so much easier in the long run. The training in this book is so gentle. The practical exercises ensure you learn through role-play and in the end your child is fully equipped to handle situations in a better way. There are plenty of beautiful Hadith to support the material. You won't be disappointed with this book. I strongly recommend it". - Farhana, Elementary Teacher "This book is doing a great job in teaching children anger management, being forgiving and patient. I love the beautiful stories and reflective activities. The illustrations are fun and very engaging." - Dr. Farah "This gentle book introduces Prophetic principles of patience and conflict resolution simply and effectively. I especially appreciated the stories in the end, they are a great way to appeal to kids and provide a good starting point for discussion." - Umm Yahya, Primary and junior-intermediate Teacher About the Author Julia Hanke was born and raised in Germany. She converted to Islam at the age of 17. Julia studied Education and Islamic Sciences at a famous German University and achieved her Bachelor's degree. At the moment, she is homeschooling her three children. Please note that the book is printed by Amazon.

My First Islamic Book for Children Under 3 Sep 21 2021 Engaging, Colorful, and Fun Islamic book for kids This book is not like other Islamic books for children under 3! It is filled with good Islamic morals, manners, and stories that introduce your Toddler to essential Islamic Foundations. "My First Islamic Book for Children under 3" has been created in recognition of the need for books that tell the stories of Islam for small children. Most of the Islamic educational and storybooks for children available today are either lacking in authenticity or are written in a language that is difficult for young children to understand. "My First Islamic Book for Children under 3" is written in a way that toddlers and pre-school age children can easily understand. The author made these stories as authentic as possible by taking stories and information from the Quran, Tafseer Ibn Katheer, Bukhari, Muslim, and other authentic Hadith books and simplifying the language and adding context that children can understand, without changing the intended meaning. This simple language results from an interactive reading process between the author and her then three-year-old son. The author kept editing and simplifying the text until her son was able to understand it easily. About the Author Julia Hanke was born and raised in Germany. She converted to Islam at the age of 17 and took the name Hafsa to have a Muslim identity. Hafsa studied Education and Islamic Sciences at a famous German University. At the moment, she is homeschooling her three children. Well suited for Babies, Toddlers, Preschoolers, and even very beneficial for children up to 10 years of age! Teach your children who Allah is, His authentic Names and Attributes, and what they mean for every Muslim. Which morals and lessons can we draw from Allah's Names and Attributes? Which name should we use in which dua in which situation? Find out in this book. A must-read for every Muslim.

Children of Islam Oct 03 2022 This book is the result of the first comprehensive research, carried out within the framework of Islamic Studies, on childhood in medieval Muslim society. It deals with the images of children, with adults' attitudes towards them, and with concepts of childhood as reflected in legal, theological, philosophical, ethical and medical writings as well as works of belles lettres. The studies included in this volume are based on the historical-philological methodology enriched by a comparative approach towards the subject.

Islam for Children Nov 04 2022 This popular classic is a must for all Muslim children, parents, and teachers. It covers the lives of the Prophets, faith, prayer, fasting, charity, pilgrimage, morals, and manners. Learning by doing is emphasized, with plenty of fun things to do for kids 6-12 years: picture puzzles, crossword puzzles, games, coloring, and crafts, making learning about Islam enjoyable and educational. Originally published in Germany, it has already been used successfully in both Muslim homes and weekend classes. The English version has been revised and carries new illustrations. Ahmad Von Denffer was born in Germany in 1949. He studied Islamics and Social Anthropology at the University of Mainz, where he also attended additional courses in the Department of Missiology. His special interests include Christian-Muslim relations. He has made a number of contributions to scholarly journals and has several publications to his credit. He joined the Islamic Foundation as Research Fellow in 1978 and is presently working with the Islamic Centre, Munich.

Children in the Muslim Middle East Jul 20 2021 Today nearly half of all people in the Middle East are under the age of fifteen. Yet little is known about the new generation of boys and girls who are growing up in a world vastly different from that of their parents, a generation who will be the leaders of tomorrow. This groundbreaking anthology is an attempt to look at the current situation of children by presenting materials by both Middle Eastern and Western scholars. Many of the works have been translated from Arabic, Persian, and French. The forty-one pieces are organized into sections on the history of childhood, growing up, health, work, education, politics and war, and play and the arts. They are presented in many forms: essays in history and social science, poems, proverbs, lullabies, games, and short stories. Countries represented are Egypt, Jordan, Morocco, Tunisia, Israel/West Bank, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Sudan, Lebanon, Turkey, Yemen, and Afghanistan. This book complements Elizabeth Fernea's earlier works, Women and the Family in the Middle East and Middle Eastern Muslim Women Speak (coedited with Basima Bezirgan). Like them, it will be important reading for everyone interested in the Middle East and in women's and children's issues.
