We Can't Be Friends Oct 20 2021 The companion to The Dead Inside, "[An] unnerving and heartrending memoir" (Publishers Weekly) This is the story of my return to high school. This is the true story of how I didn't die. High school sucks for a lot of people. High school extra sucks when you believe, deep in your soul, that every kid in the school is out to get you. I wasn't popular before I got locked up in Straight Inc., the notorious "tough love" program for troubled teens. So it's not like I was walking around thinking everyone liked me. But when you're psychologically beaten for sixteen months, you start to absorb the lessons. The lessons in Straight were: You are evil. Your peers are evil. Everything is evil except Straight, Inc. Before long, you're a true believer. And when you're finally released, sent back into the world, you crave safety. Crave being back in the warehouse. And if you can't be there, you'd rather be dead.

Cold Calling Is Like a Colonoscopy without the Drugs: How You Can Find New Business with Courage, Cold Calling and a Few Less Invasive Techniques May 27 2022 Cold calling, like a colonoscopy, is a pain in the butt. You may not like the process, but they can both save your ass. My objective with this book is direct: to help you find new business by getting you in front of the people who can buy. What you'll get from this book is what you can't get from anywhere else: my perspective. You'll learn what I've learned up until now. It just won't take you a lifetime to learn it like it did me. Part one of this book is about the mental game of cold calling: how to get the courage to deal with your fears to do whatever it takes to get in front of buyers. Part two includes specific strategies and techniques to get there. And not all have anything to do with cold calling as you know it.

Philosophy in the Boudoir May 15 2021 In the boudoir of a sequestered country house, a young virgin is ruthlessly schooled in evil. Indoctrinated by her amoral tutors in the ways of sexual perversion, fornication, murder, incest, atheism and complete self-gratification, she takes part with growing abandon in a series of violent erotic orgies which culminates with the flagellation and torture of her own mother - her final act of liberation. This new edition includes Minski the Cruel, a brand new, unexpurgated and explicit translation of a key episode from de Sade's Justine.

Love If We Can Stand It Dec 22 2021 In this collection of his best poems, Bruce F. Kawin explores many aspects of love, from the romantic to the metaphysical and from sex to mourning. The breadth of voice and form is masterful, and the poems are bold and evocative. As complex as they are, they relate plainly to real life. The book includes a sestina about a harried woman, a sonnet sequence reimagined as a slide show, a menu of potential love stories, a lesbian epic set in modern Greece and reimagined versions of old horror films, all of them charged with startling, moving and convincing visions of love. With his unique tone and subject matter, his good stories, his striking insights and his fresh, vivid language, Kawin reinvents and revives the love poem.

"If You Lean In, Will Men Just Look Down Your Blouse?" Dec 10 2020 Gina Barreca is fed up with women who lean in, but don't open their mouths. In her latest collection of essays, she turns her attention to subjects like bondage which she notes now seems to come in fifty shades of grey and has been renamed Spanx. She muses on those lessons learned in Kindergarten that every woman must unlearn like not having to hold the hand of the person you're waking next to (especially if he's a bad boyfriend) or needing to have milk, cookies and a nap every day at 3:00 PM (which tends to sap one's energy not to mention what it does to one's waistline). She sounds off about all those things a woman hates to hear from a man like "Calm down" or "Next time, try buying shoes that fit". "If You Lean In, Will Men Just Look Down Your Blouse?" is about getting loud, getting love, getting ahead and getting the first draw (or the last shot). Here are tips, lessons and bold confessions about bad boyfriends at any age, about friends we love and ones we can't stand anymore, about waist size and wasted time, about panic, placebos, placentas and certain kinds of not-so adorable paternalism attached to certain kinds of politicians. The world is kept lively by loud women talking and "If You Lean In, Will Men Just Look Down Your Blouse?" cheers and challenges those voices to come together and speaking up. You think she's kidding? Oh, boy, do you have another thing coming.
